2020 Sponsorship Opportunities: The Cultural Landscape Foundation Traveling Photographic Exhibitions

In tandem with the Landslide@ program, TCLF periodically produces traveling photographic exhibitions that illustrate the year's thematic compendium of threatened and at-risk sites. Each exhibition features newly commissioned photography, narratives about the sites and theme being explored, and ways for the public to get involved. There are currently three such traveling exhibitions:

The Landscape Architecture of Lawrence Halprin

Includes more than 50 newly commissioned photographs of important residential, civic, and commercial projects.

The New American Garden: The Landscape Architecture of Oehme, van Sweden

Includes 52 contemporary and newly commissioned photographs of important residential, civic, and commercial projects.

Online exhibition

The Landscape Architecture Legacy of Dan Kiley

Features 45 vibrant photographs that chronicle the current state of 27 of Kiley's more than 1,000 projects worldwide.
